

Thorp Law is pleased to report a recent Wake County verdict of $13,787,344.

Isaac Thorp, who associated his co-counsel and wife, Stephanie Gibbs, a partner at Gailor Hunt Davis Taylor & Gibbs, PLLC, recently obtained the verdict, which included $7 million in punitive damages.

Mr. Thorp and Ms. Gibbs represented a woman, now age 23, who suffered severe permanent injuries after an intoxicated driver struck her vehicle head-on while driving approximately 100 miles per hour into oncoming traffic on I-40 East. The defendant, a medical equipment technician, was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Philips North America, LLC, when he struck the plaintiff's and several other vehicles.

A verdict report will appear in the next issue of North Carolina Lawyers Weekly.

Thorp Law handles catastrophic personal injury cases throughout North Carolina.

4140 Parklake Avenue, Suite 100 • Raleigh, NC 27612
919-833-6408 • thorplaw.com

